Media Production

Conceptualize, create and critically examine media arts across a range of creative practices—including documentary, performance, sound and immersive media—in innovative ways. You will develop technical skills, storytelling techniques and a visual style as you discover your personal vision.

The Department of Critical Media Practices offers:
BA in Media Production | Minor in Media Production

College of Media, Communication and Information

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

Media production is one of the most creative majors you will find on campus. We'll give you state-of-the-art tools to empower your creativity and guide you in developing critical thinking skills for innovative and creative media-making productions.

- Gain hands-on experience at production workshops and media labs where you'll master a variety of tools, including hybrid workflows, large-scale video production and open-source programming.
- Intern and network with experts from creative communities in Boulder and Denver, home to many award-winning filmmakers and artists.
- Specialize in one of four concentrations, or create your own in consultation with your advisor:

   Documentary production platforms and storytelling techniques

   Performance media

   Sound practices/design

   Immersive media practices—VR and AR

   Customize a track that fits your specific area of interest
